LAST CALL FOR 1920 OUR LINE OF NURSERY STOCK

is going fast; but we still have quite an assortment of the best Apple, Pear, Plum, Peach, and other Fruit Trees. In small fruits, we have Blackberries, Raspberries (both black-cap and red), Gooseberries and Currants, all in the best varieties; also Concord Grape Vines, Rhubarb and Asparagus, 2 year roots, and quite a lot of Shrubs (Spirea, Hydrangeas, Dentzas, Weigelas, Lilacs, Clematis, Flowering Currant, Snowberry, etc.).

Our Evergreens are extra fine. We dig them the same day they are wanted. Those not sold this season will be left stand another year, but you ought not to put off the beautifying of your HOME, or FARM-STEAD, another year.

This is an ideal spring for setting out all kinds of trees and plants.

Opportunity swings the door WIDE OPEN. Call at the old stand; or address at OREGON, MO. We will be here until the planting season is over.

Yours For Good Stock and Prompt Service.

MURRAY NURSERIES
GEO. R. MURRAY, Proprietor.

Mont Curry and wife, of Kansas City, and Roy Claiborne and wife, of St. Joseph, came up Saturday of last week, and were in attendance at the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Minnie Shepard, who died Saturday of last week, and the funeral was held Monday of this week. They returned to their homes Monday of this week.

Richville. —Some thirty days ago, this scribe's emergency address received a notice from the War Department, stating that baggage arrived at Hoboken, N. J., from the A. E. F. for him. The so-called baggage was a barrack bag. The scribe described the contents, then requested the same, and they arrived Monday. —We had not seen or heard of our barrack bag since July 17, 1918, at Lifford le Grand, France. It still contained the Red Cross kit, which the Oregon Red Cross gave us the morning of our departure, also a knit helmet and wireless, presented by Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Cook, some pictures, etc.

—Some of Nodaway Kingdom's Masons are in St. Joseph, this week, attending the spring convocation of Scottish Rite Masonry.

—Streamlets Mystery and Doubt have had their capacity tested the past week. The Bridge of Signs doesn't look like it once did. The Bridge of Danger, over Streamlet Wanderer, looks like it always did, only its condition gets more becoming to its name every day.

—It's about time you were getting out to see us again, Sister Long.

—The Nodaway Township Democrats held a township meeting, last Saturday evening, for the purpose of electing delegates to the county convention. We were entitled to two, and there were two present. Hugh Brohan was elected chairman and Allen G. Stanley secretary. The chairman and secretary instructed themselves to vote against anybody who would support Senator James A. Reed for delegate-at-large to the national convention, then adjourned.

—Quite a number attended Mrs. Minnie Shepard's funeral, Monday, at the Richville M. E. church. Obituary elsewhere in the Sentinel.

—Last week's blizzard was duly chronicled by the correspondents for this great religious weekly. We are a little late, however, the Nodaway Kingdom received its share of snow. Several of these hollows were level full, this scribe knows positively.

—Jesse Cordrey, of Stony Point, was transacting business in Forbes, Monday.

—Several of the schools of the Nodaway Kingdom will close Friday.

—At the school election, last Tuesday, James Iddings was re-elected as a director. The school board is composed of J. E. Taylor, J. H. Lark and James Iddings.

—We hope for settled weather in the future, but can't see it yet. These Nodaway Alps make a very good barometer.

—Despite the inclemency of the weather, Good Friday, several families of the Nodaway Kingdom planted potatoes.

EMANON.

—Miss Cassie Abshire, one of the teachers in public schools at Bigelow, was an over Sunday guest of Dr. F. E. Hogan and wife, of this city.

—W. C. Proud, M. D., Eye, Ear, Throat and Nose Specialist, Office, Physicians' & Surgeons' Building, 7th and Francis Sts., St. Joseph, Mo. 14

—Mrs. Louise Gibson has returned from Hot Springs, Arkansas, where she passed the winter. She is looking just fine—the climate and water of that famous resort certainly agrees with her.

—Nuzum's Ferry Boat is now making regular trips across Missouri River at White Cloud, Kans.

Forest City School Notes.

The date has been set for the second Annual Declamatory and the first Oratorical contest of the Forest City high school and final preparations are being made. The contests will be Tuesday, April 20, in the City Hall. The five entries in the Declamatory Contest (in order of appearance) are: Avis Gaemlich, Hazel Lyons, Lennus Wallace, Mabel McGuire and O'Leita Weightman.

The entrants in the Oratorical Contest are: Lewis Shumate, Beeler Fitzmaurice, Paul Staleup and Charles Cass.

The declamations and orations will be interspersed with musical numbers.

An admission fee of 25 cents for school children and 50 cents for adults will be charged. Medals for winner of each contest and expenses of out-of-town judges will be paid out of proceeds. Remainder of proceeds, if any, will be applied on account of Keystone Visual Education equipment. Those who enjoyed our first declamatory contest will be expected to attend this one and to bring a friend with them. A full house will help contestants. Let's all help!

Surrounding towns are reporting a successful school election last week, all of them having asked for an increase in school taxes of from twenty-five cents to one dollar on the one hundred dollars assessed valuation. The Forest City Board of Education decided that the present standing of this school could be maintained with only a fifteen cent furnishing and repair tax. We are glad that this additional levy passed by a safe majority.

The Board of Education met Wednesday evening for the purpose of ascertaining the results of the election and re-organizing. The two new members of the board, John T. Birmingham and Arthur J. Cotten, took the oath of office. J. M. Shumate was elected president of the board; house and grounds committee was appointed; and the Schaeffer district was annexed to the Forest City district for school purposes.

Practice upon the class play, "Between the Acts," has begun. This is a splendid play and will merit your attendance. Date of play will be announced later.

The Junior-Senior reception was held at the home of Josephine D. Birmingham, Friday evening, April 9, 1920. Two rooms were tastefully decorated in the Junior colors, canary and wine, and one in the Senior colors, purple and white. Guessing games and music made the evening seem a short one. Delicious refreshments were served in two courses.

ALBERT MARKT

—Harold Peret, wife and two sons, of Kansas City, are here and will take charge of the home place. His father and mother, H. E. Peret and wife, are contemplating removing to Oregon and taking life easily. This is as it should be, and we hope they will make the change. We are glad to have Harold back among us again, and especially so since he brings back a wife and two sons.

—It was 25 degrees above zero, Tuesday morning, April 13—7 degrees below freezing.

—Two tons of Timothy Hay, loose in my barn, one mile east of Oregon.
